Governing Documents Summary

Congratulations on choosing to live in the Twin Lakes Homeowner's Association. We are a community in Federal Way that consists of 1363 homes in a combination of private and common property. The Twin Lakes Homeowner's Association, hereafter called the TLHOA or HOA, is governed by Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions [CC&R] as recorded Jan 10, 1966. From time to time, the TLHOA Board of Directors has exercised its statutory authority to interpret and supplement the CC&R. The result has been Rules, Regulations and Policies [RRP], now up to Revision L, adopted January 2024. The following is a summary of all CC&R and RRP for quick reference.

The official reference remains the original documents. This summary does not replace the CC&Rs and RR&Ps, and all owners are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the specific requirements of those governing documents. This summary is intended to simplify and clarify some of the more frequently referenced provisions in those documents.

All Owners, tenants, guests, and pets are subject to the Twin Lakes HOA rules and regulations, hereinafter referred to as Rules and Regulations. It is the responsibility of the Owner(s) to notify tenants and guests of these rules, and the Board of Directors shall hold the Owner responsible for actions of the residents/guests in violation of these Rules and Regulations. It is the legal responsibility of all owners and individuals occupying a lot who are not the legal owners (hereinafter occupants) to know and abide by the provisions of the Declaration, Bylaws, and these Rules and Regulations.

The Board of Directors and/or the Managing Agent will work to enforce the Rules and Regulations and other governing documents of the Association, but the participation and cooperation of every owner and occupant is essential to our success in maintaining a desirable residential area.

Twin Lakes Homeowner's Association Governing Documents Summary

Section Three - Esthetics

Each individual owner shall be obligated to provide exterior maintenance on his own lot. Owners and their tenants, if applicable, are expected to keep their properties in accordance with the following rules year around and to promptly address any issues that the HOA brings to the owner's attention via written notification. * Items will be reviewed from the street, sidewalk, or golf course. In the case of backyards not visible from the street, sidewalk or golf course, homeowners are expected to maintain these same standards. Be a good neighbor.

In May each year, the Homeowner's Association conducts a general esthetics review of all 10 divisions of Twin Lakes. The Association and/or its agent will conduct the spring esthetics inspections to confirm all owners' compliance with the governing document requirements regarding property maintenance and other exterior appearance issues. A notification in writing will be sent to any home not in compliance with the rules.

If you receive notice of Esthetics Violation in writing from the TLHOA office, you are expected to correct all noted deficiencies in a timely manner [typically within 4 weeks]. In all instances, it is the obligation of the Owner to advise the Association in writing when the violation has been corrected. The TLHOA will then re-inspect the property upon owner's notification of the correction to verify that all violations are
